

Reclaim Your Independence with CORE Services

Community-Oriented Recovery and Empowerment Services

CORE Services Can Help You:

Feel Better

Focused care, tailored to your unique needs, and promoting overall physical, mental, and spiritual wellness. Learn how to identify triggers and manage a setback.

Build Relationships

Instruction, skill-building, and support from people who have been in your place, and can show you the way out. Help is also available for families and friends to understand your needs and how to support you.

If you or someone you know is a HARP enrollee, you can get assistance from CORE.

Continue Your Employment/Education

Create academic and professional goals, and receive support and advocacy to help you achieve them.

Live Independently

Develop skills to help you manage life tasks, cope with stress, re-engage with your community, and advocate for yourself.

Allwel provides CORE services in your community or via telehealth.
